“A charming, characterful yet unlisted two double bedroom house, offering a wealth of period features, delightful cottage gardens & off-road parking.”

Description

A charming, characterful yet unlisted two double bedroom house, located in a prominent position just a stone's throw from the town centre and its wide range of amenities and short walk from the railway station.

Other notable benefits include a wealth of period features, delightful cottage gardens incorporating a detached outbuilding ideal for a variety of uses, off-road parking to the front and potential for a third bedroom (subject to the relevant consents).

About the Area

Needham Market is a desirable small town situated in the heart of Mid Suffolk between the towns of Bury St Edmunds and Ipswich. There are a range of everyday amenities and individual shops including butcher, baker, tea shops/cafes, public houses, take-away restaurants, a post office and a Co-op supermarket. There is also a library, community centre, dentist and a good local primary school. Alder Carr Farm offers fresh farm food for sale and a restaurant.

Needham Market also has good transport links with bus and train services into Stowmarket and Ipswich, where there are mainline services to London Liverpool Street Station. A range of events are held throughout the year, including street fairs and raft racing at Needham Lake which is a Conservation Area with a number of countryside walks.

The nearby towns of Stowmarket, Bury St Edmunds and Ipswich provide further amenities, recreational and cultural facilities and a range of individual high street stores.

AML

We are now obligated by law to carry out Anti-Money Laundering checks on any new clients we work with. This additional due diligence, on top of our usual identification checks, requires additional third party platforms to carry out this inspection, subsequently incurring additional costs. For this reason, we now need to charge a nominal fee of £15.00 plus VAT as a contribution towards this. The same will be charged to any prospective buyers and sellers alike.
