PROPERTY SUMMARY

A well-presented semi-detached home tucked into a quiet cul-de-sac in the sought-after West Mead in Welwyn Garden City. With off-road parking, a garage, a large garden, and genuine scope to extend.

The ground floor offers two versatile reception rooms, including a dining room extension that brings in excellent natural light and creates a sociable, open feel. The kitchen is bright and well-equipped for everyday use.

Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms offer comfortable, peaceful accommodation — plenty of space for a growing family or to set up a home office. A family bathroom serves all three rooms, fitted to a good standard and well-maintained throughout.

The large private garden is one of this home's standout features. Generous in size, it's well-suited to children playing, keen gardeners, or simply relaxing and entertaining when the weather allows. It also lends itself nicely to a future extension, should a new owner wish to grow the ground floor footprint — subject to the usual planning consents.

A garage with off road parking is located just around the corner, along with local shops covering everyday essentials, well-regarded schools within easy reach, and the cul-de-sac setting means minimal through traffic. Transport links are conveniently close for commuters too.
