Chain Pier House, Marine Parade, Brighton, BN2 1PE

Raised ground floor apartment in an historic Georgian building on the Brighton seafront.

Are you in search of an apartment just off the seafront? Then look no further than this one bedroom apartment located in the historic Chain Pier House. Named after The Royal Suspension Chain Pier, Brighton's first pier that was located opposite, and opened in 1823, the same as year as the iconic Royal Pavilion. Located just off the seafront, this early 19th-century building offers a unique opportunity to own a piece of Brighton's fascinating history.

As you enter, an inviting entrance hallway greets you, leading you to the main rooms.

The west-facing lounge and bedroom get plenty of natural light, creating a bright and cosy atmosphere. The wooden flooring complements the natural light, giving the rooms a warm and contemporary feel.

The separate kitchen is both functional and stylish, with white tiling and ample cupboard space for all your culinary needs.

The bathroom has fully tiled walls and floor, having a white suite and window for light and ventilation.

With a floor area of 368 ft² / 34.2m², the apartment offers space for comfortable living.

The location of this property is truly unbeatable. Situated just off the seafront close to Kemptown high street, you'll have easy access to an array of local bars, cafes, restaurants, and shops. Indulge in a cup of coffee at a nearby trendy cafe, explore the vibrant nightlife, or shop for unique treasures at the local boutiques. With everything just a stone's throw away, you'll have the best of Brighton right at your proverbial doorstep.
